IAFF Remembers Its 9/11 Fallen

IAFF 9/11 Wreath Laying Ceremony
FDNY 10 House
124 Liberty Street, New York, NY
Friday, September 10, 4:30 p.m.

The International Association of Fire Fighters (IAFF) will conduct a somber wreath laying ceremony at the site of the deadliest terrorist attack in American history in recognition of the 20th anniversary of 9/11 and honoring the 343 FDNY fire fighters who lost their lives that dark day. The 324,000 members of the IAFF will always remember and never forget these fire fighters and their families who gave so much.

Speakers will provide remarks at FDNY 10 House then walk to the 9/11 Memorial South Pool for the wreath laying.

Media:

Interviews can be arranged before and after the ceremony. Contact Tim Burn.

Mult Box will be in place at the South Pool.

The ceremony will be livestreamed at www.facebook.com/IAFFonline and posted afterwards on <https://www.youtube.com/iafftv>.

Speakers:

Edward A. Kelly, IAFF General President

James McCarthy, President, Uniformed Fire Officers Association (UFOA) of New York Local 854

Andrew Ansbro, President, Uniformed Firefighters Association (UFA) of New York Local 94
