

Dixie Abramian

As president and chief executive officer of the Firefighters First Federal Credit Union since 2017, Dixie Abramian oversees the credit union's strategies and operations. With more than $1.8 billion in assets and 53,000 members, the Firefighters First Federal Credit Union is the largest credit union in the country exclusively serving fire fighters and their families. An officer on professional and philanthropic boards, Dixie is well-versed in board governance. As co-founder and board chair of the Fire Family Foundation, she is committed to the Foundation's mission to ensure a compassionate response when tragedy affects fire fighters and their families. She also helped launch and serves as a board of director for Firefighter Insurance Services, which safeguards the assets of fire families nationwide.

Her 29 years of experience in financial services shows her commitment and dedication to ensuring a legendary experience for all Firefighters First members. She is a proven builder and leader of effective organizations and her forward thinking has positioned her as the driving force behind national expansion, membership growth and branding of the Firefighters First Federal Credit Union's footprint in key markets. Dixie's core strengths include strategy, innovation, operational excellence, financial acumen, talent development, brand management and market research and analytics.
