TRANSITION

Erin Lynch

With more than 25 years in the event industry, in 2010, Erin Lynch founded her own company, Foundation Management and Pro Productions, Inc (FMP), a non-profit management and event production company that focuses foundation management, event production, marketing consultation and creative services. She has produced every type of event concept imaginable, from large-scale conventions to intimate cocktail parties. Lynch's larger events include the International Sand Sculpting Festival, the Professional Fire Fighters of Massachusetts Biennial Convention and the Annual Massachusetts 9/11 Commemoration. The daughter of a Boston fire fighter, she also specializes in the endorsement work and charitable efforts of professional athletes and professional sports teams, including Raymond Bourque, the Boston Bruins and the Boston Celtics.
