Megan K. Mechak

Attorney Megan K. Mechak is a partner with McGillivray Steele Elkin and has been with the firm since 2007. In addition to numerous Guardian Policy successes, stellar representation of IAFF locals in negotiations, grievances and beyond, Mechak has demonstrated an unparalleled dedication to helping the IAFF achieve success. She has worked tirelessly on behalf of IAFF members who make the ultimate sacrifice in carrying out their job duties. Moreover, Mechak tackles the most complex problems facing IAFF affiliates with creativity, dedication and passion, resulting in tremendous outcomes for our members. No matter the issue, she is a bold advocate for the IAFF, affiliates and members. Finally, Megan keenly understands the complex needs of a large labor organization serving fire fighters and emergency medical personnel. She has also served as primary counsel to the United States Capitol Police Labor Committee since 2012.
