

Preet Bassi

Preet Bassi has been chief executive officer of the Center for Public Safety Excellence (CPSE) since 2014, overseeing work across all fire department accreditation, credentialing and education programs with a focus on the organization's strategic direction. During her tenure, CPSE has experienced unprecedented growth and impact. Previously, she served as director of finance and administration for the International Accreditation Service, managing its Fire and Life Safety and Building Department Accreditation programs. She has experience at both the local and state government levels, having worked for the City of Anaheim, California, and the California State Assembly.

Ms. Bassi holds a master's degree in Public Administration from the University of Southern California and dual bachelor's degrees in economics and Political Science from the University of California Davis. She is credentialed as a Certified Association Executive (CAE) through the American Society of Association Executives. Recently, she was part of the inaugural cohort for the University of Pennsylvania's Executive Program in Social Innovation Design and completed Cornell's Diversity and Inclusion eCertificate program.

